★★★★★ “Ricky Zalman neatly defines the witty quality of Man's wandering imagination.” - Joanna Hetherington for The Spy In The Stalls ('Play' by Samuel Beckett)

★★★★★ “The skill the players – Rose Trustman, Ricky Zalman and Samantha Kamras – display as they cope with the language is formidable.” - William Russell for ReviewsGate ('Play' by Samuel Beckett)

★★★★★ “The intensity and crisp diction from Rose Trustman, Ricky Zalman and Samantha Kamras make for a compelling piece and their timing is immaculate.” - Siân Rowland for London Pub Theatres ('Play' by Samuel Beckett)

“Ricky's interview with the social worker! His vulnerability and anxiety, his desire to be good, the pinch of those past failures that we could sense, though he never articulated them, his controlled but desperate cry out for help. That was an absolutely beautiful piece of acting which I will remember for a long time.” - Audience review for 'Stray' by Angel Theatre Company.
